

Live Lessons

Behaviour Expectations

We expect you to take responsibility for your own learning and your own behaviour. Where your behaviour falls short of our expectations, we reserve the right to deny you access to any future Live Lessons.

We expect you to be kind and polite, and to follow the instructions of all members of staff – at the first time of asking. Only use your emails, or the Live Lesson Q&A, to communicate with school staff.

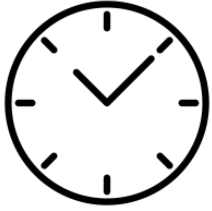

We will deal with any negative behaviours just as we would if school were open – your parents and carers will remain informed, and there will be consequences to your actions.

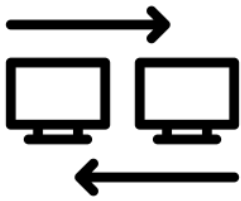

We expect active participation in the Live Lessons – all work must be completed to the best of your ability, and any deadlines must be met

Live Lessons

Behaviour Expectations

We expect all students to attend all lessons – on time, fully equipped, and ready to learn. Let school know in advance if you have a predictable absence. It is your job to catch up on any work missed.

We need you to have a suitable a device with internet connection for you to access the Live Lessons – let school know as soon as possible if this is a problem for you, so we can help.

We need you to work somewhere calm, and quiet. Remove any distractions – you should not be using your phones or any other devices whilst you are accessing a Live Lesson.

Recordings of any Live Lessons are intended to help support your learning. They are not to be used for any other purpose.
